When the standby time gauge goes down to zero, "X action" will be displayed for the frontline character, and "O action" for the backup character. At that time, you can press the corresponding button to execute the action. When the action is completed, you can select another action.

END OF BATTLE

The battle ends when you defeat all the enemies.

WARNING When all your party members are either defeated or paralyzed, the game is over.

AFTER THE BATTLE ENDS

When you win the battle, you gain experience points (EXP), money (GG) and Master Points (MP) according to the type and number of enemies that you defeated. In addition, you may find items dropped by the enemy.

LEVEL UP

Each character gains some experience points per battle, and when it reaches a certain amount, the character levels up. Your parameters will also increase (SPEED, ELEMENTAL POWER, including CHARISMA for Meis), after leveling up.

MASTER SYSTEM

Coming from a family of Spirit Blacksmiths, Meis can strengthen existing weapons, level up, add new features, spells, and even special attacks to that weapon. This is called the Master System. In order to forge a weapon, the Master Points (MP) and a girl's Intimacy Level are required. A girl's assistance is a must for making a weapon stronger by imbuing it with an Elemental Spirit.

EFFECTS RESULTING FROM THE GROWTH OF A WEAPON

Since the weapon acts as a tool for both offense and defense in this game, the growth of a weapon is a very important factor. By strengthening a weapon, the defensive power, as well as the offensive power, increases. Special attacks and magic spells can also be added to the weapon. See Page 27 for details.

1. The performance of the weapon increases.
2. New special attacks may be acquired.
3. Spells become available.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Each girl can imbue different spells and/or special attacks at different Intimacy levels. You can raise any girl's Intimacy level up to 10 at any given time. However, Meis' Charisma level must be equal to or higher than a girl's Intimacy level in order to imbue those spells and/or special attacks on any given Intimacy level. Be careful, and make sure that you watch Meis' Charisma level, otherwise you might miss a spell or attack when you go to forge your weapons because your Charisma isn't high enough.

THINGS TO DO BEFORE FORGING WEAPONS

1. Win Battles

A certain amount of Master Points are expended every time a weapon is strengthened. In order to gather enough MP for strengthening a weapon, you need to go into battle. Every time you win a battle, you will be given a certain amount of MP, as well as experience points and money. Additionally, by gaining experience points and leveling up, Meis' Charisma level rises. This will affect the girl's Intimacy Limit.

2. Increase the Girl's Intimacy Level

The strength of the Elemental Spirit that will be imbued in a weapon is determined by the girl's Intimacy Level. That means you need to increase the Intimacy Level to make the weapon stronger.

You can increase the Intimacy Level by going on dates with the girl. Be careful not to make the girl mad, or else Meis' Intimacy Level will go down instead. As Meis' Charisma level increases, so does the maximum limit of each girl's Intimacy Level.

* See Page 29 for additional information.

TO STRENGTHEN A WEAPON

The weapons of the party members can only be strengthened by Meis, the Spirit Blacksmith. You can do so at the smithy in cities, towns, and some dungeons.

PROCEDURE

After pressing the X button in front of the anvil, select the girl that you want to strengthen the weapon with. A weapon selection window will open up. You can then check the magic spells / special attacks that are going to be added, as well as the MP consumption rate for each weapon. Select the weapon, then press the X button to confirm the action. You will not be able to strengthen weapons that require more MP's than you have.

SELECT THE GIRL

SELECT THE WEAPON

COMPLETE!

POWER OF ELEMENTAL SPIRIT: SPECIAL ATTACK

Depending on the weapon, the girl, and her Intimacy Level, special attacks may be acquired. Each special attack can influence the course of battle greatly, the more you acquire, the easier your journey will be.

POWER OF ELEMENTAL SPIRIT: MAGIC SPELL

By infusing the girl's feelings, the Elemental Spirit dwells within the weapon that is being forged. The use of a new magic spell becomes available. Note that the only way to acquire new spells is to strengthen the weapons with the girls you meet.

ANOTHER METHOD FOR OBTAINING MP

MP's can also be obtained in cities and towns. There are certain locations where Elemental Spirits reside, and by pressing the X button in certain places you can obtain MP's.

GOING ON A DATE

In order to get acquainted with a girl, and to make weapons stronger, going on a date is absolutely necessary. To go on a date, go to a city / town and press the X button in front of a statue of the goddess. Next, select the girl that you want to go on a date with and press the X button. Finally, choose between DATE, PRESENT and MINI-GAME.

DATE

Once you select DATE, the girl you chose will appear behind you. Take her to a Date Spot! (There are several Date Spots in each city / town). You will be prompted when you reach a Date Spot. Select YES and press the X button to confirm. You will then be transferred to conversation mode, where the girl will ask you various questions. If you answer positively according to the girl's personality, your Intimacy Level with her increases. But if you upset her, your Intimacy Level with that girl may decrease.

CHOOSE THE GIRL AT THE STATUE OF THE GODDESS.

GO TO A DATE SPOT.

TALK TO HER AND RAISE YOUR INTIMACY LEVEL!

PRESENT

When you select PRESENT, the list of presents in your inventory appears. Choose the present that you want to give to the girl, then press the X button. Your Intimacy Level increases if the girl likes the present, but the reverse situation is also possible.

MINI-GAME

You can play a different mini-game with each girl. After you select MINI-GAME, START GAME, TRAINING, and INSTRUCTION will be displayed. Before starting the mini-game, it is advised to first read through the instructions and try the training game. Try your best, because your Intimacy Level with that girl will increase if you do well. On the other hand, your Intimacy Level may go down if you don't do well.

INTIMACY LEVEL AND MOOD

The Intimacy Level of a girl indicates how much Meis means to her. The mood of the girl will be represented with a heart icon. The girl is happy when the heart is filled, and she is in a bad mood when the heart is empty. Note that you are likely to get a positive result when you date a girl in a good mood, but there are conversations that can only be heard when the girl is in a bad mood.

Opening Song
"Depend on You"

Performed By Ayumi Hamasaki

written by Ayumi Hamasaki & Kazushiko Matsuchi

arranged by Akimasa Hoshino & Takashi Morio

published in the U.S. by PeerMusic Ltd. (BMG)

As translated from the original Japanese lyrics.

If there ever comes a time
when you need to go on a journey,
let's start it together, you and me.

When you are about to reach the goal you've been always striving for, what would you do if you realize that it's still so far away?

"How long do I have to go on?" "Will there ever be an end?"

How will you spend your uncertain days by yourself?

Are you tired from your flight? You can't go on any more?

You can rest your wings and be comforted,

Because I will always be here for you.

If there ever comes a time
when you need to go on a journey,
let's start it together, you and me.

Ending Song
"Two of Us"

Performed By Ayumi Hamasaki

written by Ayumi Hamasaki & Daisuke Miyuchi

arranged by Akimasa Hoshino

published in the U.S. by PeerMusic Ltd. (BMG)

As translated from the original Japanese lyrics.

I was dreaming about resting in your arms;
I woke up and noticed that I was alone.

I started crying, from loneliness.

The color-faded sofa, the pair of cups that we used,

The bed that's too large for me alone...

I'll get over them, someday.

I didn't love you so that you could keep on loving me.

I thought I knew that, but now I can't go to sleep.

The song that we liked,

The movie we watched together...

I can't forget them. I was hoping that tomorrow,

Everything would go back to the way it was...

Since then, I tried calling you once.

The girl who answered the phone

Had a gentle voice.

Your voice calling my name,

The fingers that ran through my hair.

The eyes that were so pure...

Now, they're so far away...

We laughed together, we argued together,

We believed in each other; I'm all alone.

I want to see you again,

I can never see you again.

I know, I have to give up my hope...

PRODUCTION NOTES

Hello and thank you for purchasing Thousand Arms for the PlayStation Game Console. Four years in the making and countless hours of hard work, you now hold in your hands the first RPG created by RED Company ever to be released in America. This is also as close as you're probably going to get to playing a genre made famous in Japan: the Dating Simulation. One of the things that makes Thousand Arms so special is its unique use of the Dating Events to gain special powers, spells, and weapons. Basically, the better you perform on a date, the better you will perform in the game. It really adds to the game as it avoids the traditional way of acquiring weapons and spells. It also keeps people from just wandering around to fight monsters to level up to ridiculous levels. I've been there before and it's not a pretty sight...

We want you to have the best possible gaming experience so we've made a few modifications from the Japanese version of the game to make your life a little easier. First of all, we wanted to make getting around the game world a little easier, so we made running the default instead of walking. This definitely saves you from holding down a button to run around... Hey why walk when you can run? Next, on the World Map the screen rotation buttons were reversed. Thankfully, we've fixed that problem and you can now press R1 and your view will move clockwise. To us this made gameplay more intuitive.

Next, we come to the issue of game balance. Overall, we found the game to be too easy for our taste. The first thing that we did was to lower the encounter rate of monsters and increase the amount of EXP and Money you get per battle. However, this does not mean you'll have an easier time beating the game. In exchange for this convenience of not running into a monster every other step we have made a few adjustments to help those defenseless monsters and bosses. First, we've increased their HP which should make battles take a little bit longer. We did this because over the course of a normal game, the summon spells that you acquire were way too powerful. You could easily kill a boss so fast that you wouldn't have seen any of their special attacks or spells. This we thought took away from some of the game as you would miss some rather exciting or comical spells that you would probably never see. Next, we increased the damage that the enemy inflicts upon your party. In some cases we would be doing thousands of points of damage to a boss and they would retaliate with a measly attack of a couple hundred. Bad form, most definitely. These changes will obviously make battles more satisfying as you will also need to manage your resources more wisely in order to win them.

Now, we come to the all-important discussion of the translation of Thousand Arms. As far as important plot points and dramatics are concerned we attempted to keep it as close to the original translation as possible. However, some of the comedy bits in the original had a definite Japanese flavor and this is where we had the most liberty to make things, let's say, a bit more interesting. Anyway, you'll surely recognize many things throughout the game but I'll leave it up to you to find them. Also, item names were simplified so that you wouldn't have to remember weird names for something as simple as a potion that restores HP.

Again, I would like to send a heartfelt thanks to everyone who purchased this game. By purchasing this game you assure that other games just like it will make its way to the PlayStation and consoles to come. Do not hesitate to contact us via email or snail mail to give us suggestions on our games. We always try our best to accommodate the wishes of our fans whenever possible. When you asked for the original opening and ending songs for Thousand Arms, we gave it to you. You want color manuals, we gave it to you. Ask and you shall receive (just don't ask for free games.) Anyway, we hope that you have as much fun with Thousand Arms as we had making it!

COMMENTS FROM THE CREATORS

Takehiko Itoh Planning

The "Thousand Arms" project, which started in the summer of 1995, is finally ready to be released. Because I mainly work on visual aspects such as character designs and world settings, this was my first chance to oversee the entire game planning. But being an avid RPG fan myself, I accepted the challenge and put 100% effort into it. The entire staff of Studio Morning Star spent long hours on the plan while working on 300+ pages of scenario, discussing the usage and effect of items, creating monster designs with Mr. Hatake, etc. for over 2 years. I believe that my pride as a comic book artist has ultimately reflected upon the personalities of the characters and their conversations. I can't thank Mr. Hiroi, Red Company, Athus, and all the people involved in the development enough for realizing this project!

Hiroyuki Hatake Director

My life as the illustrator, planner, and coordinator, my job to create brand new worlds... I have put into Thousand Arms everything that I have learned and experienced through my works. Since I work mostly on serious drama, I had to be extremely careful when incorporating Mr. Itoh's comedy in the game smoothly. As a result, Thousand Arms has become an epic story while retaining the essence of our daily lives. Other characteristics of the world include (1) fantasy setting, represented by the Elemental Spirits, the Sacred Altars and the Masters, and (2) glorified Industrial Revolution-style culture, represented by the mobile cities of the land, air and sea. Thanks to the support from the staff members of Morning Star and Red Company, I received many great ideas and was able to experiment on new concepts. To those of you who are going to start playing this game: Enjoy! And I hope you have lots of fun throughout your journey.

Yunya Kusaka Character Design

Mr. Itoh, whom I was a great fan of, asked me one day if I was interested in working on the character design of a game. I thought that it could be too much for me, but I accepted the offer anyway. Mr. Itoh asked for my autograph in our first meeting, and I remember becoming totally nervous. The work turned out to be very tough indeed. I had problems designing the characters so that they may be distinguished just by looking at the silhouettes. I was surprised this one time when I found out that one of my doodles in my sketchbook was actually used in the scenario! When I saw the screen of the game in development, I was so amazed at the quality of the graphic and animation that I couldn't stop thinking about how the characters that I drew would move in the actual game. The characters, especially Meis, will be alongside you on your journey. He is definitely not a typical hero of an RPG, but I hope you enjoy his company.

Junki Takegami Scenario

In the past, Mr. Hiroi, Mr. Itoh and I were involved in the production of a TV show. And when I heard that they were going to create a game, I just couldn't miss out on the opportunity to work with the two extremely talented individuals. It was fun and I didn't have much trouble, but... I fell in love with the characters after reading through Mr. Itoh's documents, and I guess I became influenced by Meis so much that the conversations in the game became... well, a bit on the perverted side. The other people had to stop me and calm me down because they said that it was too much. This is one hero with strong individuality, I tell you! Since there are many characters (especially female) in this game, I tried my best to show their personalities in each of their lines. Many staff members (including myself) have put tons of effort into Thousand Arms, but don't worry about it. Kick back, relax, and enjoy the game!

Hiroshi Kohjima
Animation Director

What do you enjoy doing? I always liked drawing pictures, and I chose to become an animator. Do you enjoy playing video games? Of course you do, right? Me too! That's why I got really excited when I was asked to work on this project. To say the truth, I was worried at first about the quality of animation in the game. But in the end, I realized that I had a great time with such a big project. I hope that you will be amazed at the smoothness of the transition from the game screen to animation sequence, and at the high quality of the CG and the animation. And please talk to lots of girls, go on dates with them, and make Meis stronger as you progress in this game. I can't wait to play Thousand Arms myself! Finally. Thank you very much for reading this comment!

Ohji Hiroi
Executive Producer

I still remember the day when Mr. Itoh came to Red Company, carrying a thick plan document. When he explained the world of Thousand Arms to me, I was drawn in by his passion. There exist countless difficulties, undesirable circumstances, and obstacles that test the humanity and professionalism of each staff member, as well as the efficiency to work as a team. Only those that overcome all obstacles are able to finalize the projects as completed products, and I believe that they are filled with the overflowing love of god. Thousand Arms is such a title. I thank each and every staff member for the effort they put into this game. Mr. Itoh, thanks for everything.

Ayumi Hamasaki
Main/Ending Theme Song

When I received the three key concepts -- "going on a journey," "the feelings of the two lovers," and "soaring in the sky" -- to work with instead of being told what kind of game Thousand Arms was or how the lyrics should be, I was able to write the song without much hassle. To me, "the feelings of the two lovers" doesn't necessarily mean that they help each other and live their lives together. There are times when a man needs to fight for what he believes in; he needs someone to return to and comfort him. "I will always be here for you"... this is the main theme of the song. I'm looking forward to playing this game, as well as trying out new things and doing my best to live my life to the fullest. And... I hope we can do it together.

HINTS

- * The key to succeeding in Thousand Arms is to DATE, DATE, DATE! When you do well on dates with certain girls they will give you access to new spells and powers that can be passed on to other characters in your party!
- * Talk to everyone you meet at least once or twice, they may give you helpful information to complete your quest.
- * Stock up plenty on healing items and recovery items. You never know when you might need them.
- * Practice using the "CANCEL" command during battle and watch what the enemy does. The wrong spell or the wrong command at the wrong moment can spell disaster for your party.
- * Remember all of your special attacks are replenished when you visit an Inn. Also, only use your special attacks when you really need them.
- * SAVE OFTEN! You never know when the next battle will be your last!

TIPS ON HOW TO ENJOY THE GAME BUT WON'T NECESSARILY HELP YOU BEAT IT

- * As much as the Dating portion of the game is important, don't take it too seriously. Don't always pick the same choices even if they are the correct ones. Have fun with it! We didn't record over 12 hours of dialogue just so that nobody would hear it! Also, you can't get everything if you always do well during your encounters! (Hint, Hint!)
- * Try to collect and use all of your party members' special attacks, you'll be glad you did!
- * Don't pass up any treasure boxes you see, you never know whatcha gonna get!
